Chapter 1 by Nini Reyes

The chilly, seaside town of Truro holds a secret.

Sarah Wilcox has the perfect life working as a computer programmer in the city and walking with her brave girlfriend, Laura Lakeman.

However, when she finds a tattered piano in her cellar, she begins to realise that things are not quite as they seem in the Wilcox family.

A birthday party leaves Sarah with some startling questions about her past, and she sets off to pretty Truro to find some answers.

At first the people of Truro are kind and understanding. She is intrigued by the curiously modest doctor, Robbin Williams. However, after he introduces her to hard coffee, Sarah slowly finds herself drawn into a web of theft, decadence and perhaps, even drugs.

Can Sarah resist the charms of Robbin Williams and uncover the secret of the tattered piano before it's too late, or will her demise become yet another Truro legend?
